To expedite the admission of new members and as well as other items on which members have to vote, the club would like to set up a process for electronic voting in which members can receive and return a ballot by email. To set up the process, each member needs to acknowledge the process.

Please indicate your acceptance of the process below. Note that anyone wishing to receive a ballot by mail may also indicate that preference below.

This acknowledgement will be effective until the Club Secretary receives written/email revocation.

Please fill in your name in the appropriate blank below and your email address or street address whichever is appropriate.

I, acknowledge and accept NCBCF will conduct some elections for new members, election of officers and board members or other items as appropriate via email. Please send my ballot to the following email address. I understand that I can revoke my acceptance as any time upon written/email notification to the Club Secretary.

Email address:

I,
prefer to receive ballots by mail rather than email and will post my ballot to the club via USPS.
